If you were to share a key insight from today's sermon with a friend, what would you say in a sentence or two?

Discussion Questions: What is the significance of the table of nations in Genesis 10? What is the biblical importance placed on the natural family versus the family of grace and faith? How can we work to purge our racist impulses and seek unity under Christ? Why is the lineage of Shem given more prominence in Genesis 10, and what does this imply about God's redemptive plan? How does the genealogy in Genesis 10 prepare us for the call of Abram in Genesis 12? Reflect on how the concept of 'blessing all families of the earth' is relevant in today's global Christian mission. What are the practical implications for Christians today in understanding that God is the God of all nations?
